A world map with a light blue background and tan landmasses. The map is labeled with continents in all caps: NORTH AMERICA, SOUTH AMERICA, EUROPE, AFRICA, ASIA, and AUSTRALIA. Oceans are labeled in title case: Atlantic Ocean, Indian Ocean, and Pacific Ocean. A horizontal line labeled 'NORTH' is visible on the right side. Numerous blue circles of varying sizes are plotted across the map. A large circle is in the northern part of North America. A cluster of circles is in the Caribbean and northern South America. Another cluster is in central Africa. A large circle is in Australia. Several circles are scattered across Europe, Asia, and the Pacific region. The circles vary in size, with the largest ones in North America, Africa, and Australia. The map is sourced from Microsoft Bing, as indicated by the logo in the bottom left corner.
